Koretz Receives Labor Warrior Award

The California Labor Federation, AFL-CIO and the State Building and Construction Trade Council of California honor his legislative efforts on behalf of working families

(Sacramento) – Assemblyman Paul Koretz (D-West Hollywood), Chair of the Assembly Committee on Labor and Employment, today accepted an award from the California Labor Federation, AFL-CIO and the State Building and Construction Trades Council of California in recognition of his six years of hard work as Chair fighting for California's working families.

The award was presented at Labor's 2006 Joint Legislative Conference by California Labor Federation Executive Secretary-Treasurer Art Pulaski. Pulaski referred to Koretz as a "quiet man who makes waves" in advocating for workers and their families.

In accepting the award, Koretz stated, "There is nothing I am more proud of than my opportunity to serve the great working men and women of this state over the last six years!"
